The following concepts will be covered: scientific method, basic biochemistry, biomolecules, cell structure and function, mitosis, meiosis, cellular metabolism, basic genetics, evolution, biodiversity, and a survey of the five Kingdoms of Life. This course together with BIO 105A (lab) meets the General Education science requirements and is also recommended to prepare students for upper level biology courses.

II. Pre-requisites/Co-requisites: BIO 105A

2. Describe the significance of “The Central Dogma” and how genetic information coded in DNA is passed from parents to offspring by sexual or asexual reproduction

Critical Thinking

1. Evaluate the principles of scientific inquiry and differentiate between a theory and a hypothesis
2. Analyze quantitative and qualitative biological data using scientific methods
3. Use biological knowledge to problem solve

Cultural Awareness & Appreciation

1. Consider and reflect on the ways that the biological sciences link to aspects of human and non-human life

VI. Instructional Methodology: Course may provide various instructional approaches including individual and group work, presentations, lectures, discussions, critiques, etc.

VII. Customary Methods of Assessment: Instructors may use common and/or discretionary methods such as projects, presentations, papers, tests, discussion boards, class participation, e-Portfolio inclusions, etc. to assess student learning.

VIII. SCTC Attendance Policy: Students are expected to attend all classes for which they are registered. A student who is absent from a class misses a portion of the subject matter of the course and misses an opportunity to contribute to class. Each student is responsible for all coursework missed, regardless of the reason. Prolonged absence from class may result in a loss of financial aid and usually results in a reduction of grade. Attendance requirements may vary from instructor to instructor. Student travel for college related events is a privilege, not an entitlement. Students wishing to go on field trips or overnight travel must make arrangements with each of their instructors at least two weeks in advance. Travel status does not excuse students from due dates and other course requirements. Permission for student travel is at the discretion of each instructor (see current SCTC Student Handbook/Catalog).

Instructor Attendance Policy:

- IX. SCTC Plagiarism Policy: (Adopted with permission from Indiana University, Bloomington, IN, December 8, 2009). Plagiarism is a violation of the Student Code of Conduct described in the current SCTC Student Handbook. Such a violation may result in failure of the assignment, failure of the course, and suspension or expulsion from the college.

Those students should speak with the instructor regarding the feasibility of earning a passing grade. Those students who are unable/unlikely to earn a passing grade are advised to withdraw from the course. Withdrawal from a course is a student responsibility. Contact the Registrar for the appropriate form. Please check the academic calendar on our website for the last day to withdraw from this course.
